

Calling All Makers!

Laurel Arts invites you to participate in our Summer/Fall 2025 Makers Market! We welcome makers, crafters, small businesses, artists, and growers, whose products are locally sourced, grown, hand-crafted or manufactured to apply. Promoting hand-crafted items and/or artisan food products is the sole purpose of the Laurel Arts Makers Market. Therefore, at this time, we are not accepting applications of any other nature or purpose (i.e. business advertising, youth activity promotions, political, religious, or civic groups, direct sales, or multi-level marketing etc.)

What we are looking for:

Painting, photography, folk art, fiber/textile arts, soap, health/beauty products, pottery, sculpture, candles, garden art, printmaking, artisan food products, woodworking, furniture, jewelry, glass art, baked goods, candies, produce, plants/flowers, meats, cheeses, beer, wine, and more!

2025 Season Dates and Times:

Wednesday, May 14th, June 11th, July 9th, August 13th, *Sept. 10th, *Oct. 8th
All Markets run from 5:00 – 8:00 p.m. (*except Oct. and Sept. which end at dusk)

How to Apply: Complete the attached application form (include at least 5 photos of your products and all applicable/required licenses) and email to Laurel Arts at Lamakersmarket@gmail.com or mail to:

Laurel Arts
c/o Makers Market
P.O. Box 414
Somerset, PA 15501

To ensure the highest quality of products/artwork for sale at this event and to promote an equitable variety of vendor types, ALL vendor applications are subject to approval by the Laurel Arts Makers Market Committee.

You will be notified of your application's acceptance or rejection by email or phone, and upon acceptance, you will be sent a request for your registration fee total.

Registration Fee:

- $30 per market date (to be paid at least one week BEFORE the date of participation).
- Artisans/vendors who commit to the whole season can set up in the same spot for every market.

Location: Outdoors on the lawn at Laurel Arts---corner of Harrison Ave. and Tayman Ave., Somerset

Cancellation Policy: If you need to cancel one of your selected market dates, please notify Laurel Arts as soon as possible. Refunds will only be issued in the event of a personal emergency. If a vendor is a "no show" without notification and/or on more than one occasion, no refunds will be issued and that vendor may not be invited back to future markets.

Setup/Tear-Down Times: The earliest time vendors are permitted to set up is 3:30 p.m. on the day of each market unless you have made prior arrangements with the Makers Market Committee to set up at a different time. Tear-down begins after 8 p.m. (or at dusk). You will be able to pull up next to your spot to unload, but then all vehicles will need to be moved into one of our vendor parking areas in order to keep the street parking open to visitors.

You Provide:

- Your products/displays
- Table coverings
- A payment method (e.g. Square)
- Table and chairs
- SHADE (if preferred)---can be a standard 10' x 10' tent or canopy
- Must have stakes and/or tent weights in case of wind.

Rain Plans:

This is a rain or shine market unless the weather is severe, and in that case, vendors will be notified of a cancellation by phone or email by 1pm the day of the market. No refunds will be issued.

Artisan/Vendor Rules and Information:

1. All vendors must provide their PA sales tax ID on application.
2. All merchandise and products should be home-grown, handcrafted, or of original design. No direct sales, resale, or flea market items will be permitted.
3. All merchandise shall be of a family-friendly nature and shall not be offensive to the public or fellow artisans in any way. No items displaying suggestive connotations, imagery or profanity, political or religious campaigns or weapons may be displayed/sold.
4. Artisans/vendors will handle their own sales and all applicable sales tax, as Laurel Arts will not be set up to do so.
5. Artisans and crafters are invited (but not required) to demonstrate their craft at their booth if possible, as demonstrations help educate attendees and promote an interest in the media in which they work.
6. No raffle tickets, drawings, contests---free or otherwise---are permitted at vendor booths.
7. Laurel Arts is not responsible for lost, stolen, or damaged merchandise, products, displays, or tents.
8. Each vendor is responsible for obtaining all applicable licenses, fees, and taxes for merchandise.
9. Vendors must maintain their booths until the end of the event at 8:00 p.m./dusk.
10. Artisans/vendors are responsible for all garbage removal from their booth space at tear-down.

Laurel Arts will be advertising for the Makers Market in multiple ways, but could always use additional help spreading the word about this event! Please promote this event on your personal social media pages, and let us know if you would like some fliers or yard signs.

We look forward to having you here! Please direct any questions to Lamakersmarket@gmail.com, or call the Laurel Arts office at 814-443-2433.

Food/Beverage, and Health/Beauty Vendor Rules and Information:

Liability Insurance: Prepared or Processed Food and Health/Beauty product Vendors must obtain a minimum of $1 million Product and Premises Liability insurance in addition to general liability insurance. All Vendors' insurance must name "Laurel Arts" (P.O. Box 414, Somerset, PA 15501) as "additional insured."

1. You must provide proof of liability insurance along with your application.
2. Your permits must be visibly displayed at your booth at each Market.
3. Vendor is solely responsible for obtaining all applicable licenses and insurances required to sell their merchandise.
4. Every individual beer, wine, or liquor vendor is solely responsible for any licensing fees or non-compliance fines issued to them by the Liquor Control Board.
5. Food items MUST be prepared in a licensed facility/kitchen with the greatest diligence and caution and inspected in order to ensure the safety and purity of the contents and freshness of the product.
6. If you are a food/beverage vendor and you require electricity, please indicate your needs on your application and Laurel Arts will make every effort to accommodate you on a first come, first served basis, as spaces with access to this resource are limited. Laurel Arts does not supply power or extension cords, so please plan accordingly.
7. Artisans/vendors will handle their own sales and all applicable sales tax, as Laurel Arts will not be set up to do so.
8. No raffle tickets, drawings, contests---free or otherwise---are permitted at vendor booths.
9. Laurel Arts is not responsible for lost, stolen, or damaged merchandise, products, displays or tents.
10. Vendors must maintain their booths until the end of the event at 8:00 p.m. (or dusk).
11. Artisans/vendors are responsible for all garbage removal from their booth space at tear-down.
